4 _____ (the "Property")

5 If Buyer presents this Seller Contributions Addendum (this "Contributions Addendum") to Seller after Seller Signs and Delivers the Sale Agreement
6 to Buyer, this Contributions Addendum does not constitute a counteroffer or refusal by Buyer to honor the terms of the existing Sale Agreement.

7 1. LENDER LIMITATIONS: Some lenders allow sellers to pay a portion of a buyer's closing costs in a transaction. The amount the lender allows a
8 seller to pay may vary according to the lender's policies, the loan-to-value ratio of the transaction, the amount of closing costs paid by other parties
9 to the transaction, and whether the property is for personal use or an investment. Before asking a seller to pay closing costs, a buyer who is obtaining 10 financing for a purchase should ask their lender whether the lender permits "interested party contributions" and how much the lender would allow the 11 seller to pay.

16 agreements, payment of compensation does not modify any obligation to pay compensation to a real estate agent, or modify or create any 17 agency relationships between any parties. Buyer's Agent's Firm is intended to be a third-party beneficiary of this Contributions Addendum.
